

CHAPTER VI

POLICE

102. Police force.-- (1) If the State Government is of the opinion that police force is required by a committee on whole-time basis for a specified period exceeding one month for carrying out the purposes of this Act, it may, on an application made by the committee through the Deputy Commissioner, in this behalf, provide such police force.

(2) The committee shall pay the expenses incurred by the State Government in respect of the police force provided under sub-section (1).

103. Power and duties of police in respect of offences against Act and rules, and assistance to municipal authorities.-- (1) Every member of a police force under this Act shall give immediate information to the committee of any offence committed against this Act or the rules or bye-laws, and shall be bound to assist all members, and employees of the committee in the exercise of their lawful authority.

(2) Every member of such police force may arrest any person committing in his view any offence against this Act or the rules or bye-laws-

(a) if the name and address of the person are unknown to him, and

(b) if the person declines to give his name and address, or if there is reason to doubt the accuracy of the name and address if given.

(3) A person arrested under this section may be detained until his name and address have been correctly ascertained:

Provided that no person so arrested shall be detained longer than may be necessary for bringing him before a Magistrate except under the order of a Magistrate for his detention.

104. Police protection at fairs, etc.-- When special police protection is,
